HAMPSTEAD WOMEN'S Maccabi FC clinched promotion from the FA Greater London Northern Division 3 North after claiming a 1-0 win over Fulham.

A first-half strike from Lindsay Roberts was enough to pip Alexandra Park to the runners-up spot, leaving them six points behind champions Garston.

Manager Brad Solomon said: "The team had to be strong as we were stopped from playing our normal fluid game in the first half.

"The goal helped us believe in ourselves and in the second half we played some good flowing football. It was a scrappy game but clinching the points were all that mattered." Looking back on the season, he said: "I'm exceptionally proud of what this team have achieved.

"Together, they have reached the last eight of the FA League Cup and won promotion. I cannot fault their spirit."
